RULES/REGULATIONS/LAWS/POLICY IN SPORTS
K.H. MUNIYAPPA

Will the Minister of YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the rules, regulations, laws, policy of sports at the National level has been at par or better than the international levels/competitions/games where India has been officially competing or sending its `Official Indian Teams` and;

(b) if not, the reaction of the Government thereto?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF YOUTH AFFAIRS & SPORTS (SHRI PON. RADHAKIRISHNAN)

(a) Government of India has not enacted any legislation on sports as `Sports` is a State subject. However, the existing National Sports Policy, which sought to raise the standard of sports in the country, was formulated in 1984. By and large and particularly during the initial years, it has worked well.

(b) Does not arise.
